2 INSTALLING YOUR PHONE

2.1 Connecting the base station

 Plug the power supply and line cord and line cord into the base station

2) Plug the power adapter into a 100-240V 50/60Hz mains socket, and the line cord into your telephone line socket. 3) Always use the cables provided in the box

Warning: Use only the provided power adapter, as others may cause a hazard. Warning: Install the base unit in a position where the mains adapter plug will reach an easily accessible mains socket. Never try to lengthen the mains

Note: The base unit needs mains power for normal operation, not just for charging the handset batteries. 2.2 Installing and charging the batteries markings as shown. Use only the NiMH rechargeable battery type provided.

1) Place the 2 supplied batteries into the battery compartment with the polarity

2) Position the battery compartment cover over the batteries and slide up to click into place

Your phone includes a telephone answering machine that records unanswered calls when it is on. The answering machine can store up to 59 messages within the maximum recording time of approximately 15 minutes. As well as recording incoming messages, you can record memos for other users of your phone. If the answering machine memory is full, the Handset will display TAM FULL alternately with the handsets name or time, depending on the handset standby display mode set (see section 7.3.7), and you will have to delete some messages before any new ones can be recorded

Some answering machine functions can be operated from the base, including playing messages and turning the answering machine on or off. See section "3.2 Base Station with Telephone Answering Machine (TAM) Control" for further details of button operations.

The answering machine can also be controlled and set up using the handset menu functions, as below

8.1 Turn On/Off the Answering MachineYou can turn the answering machine on or off using the handset. When the answering machine is set to ON, calls will be answered after the set answer delay and the caller can then leave you a message. When the answering machine is set to OFF, calls will be answered after 14 rings and the answer only message will be played to your callers. They will not be able to leave you a message.

- Press <MENU/OK> and <UP/DOWN> to select ANS. MACHINE.
