Derwent Bird Bath

The Derwent, combining the lovely appearance of real stone with the lightweight advantage of poly-stone structure; a compound of crushed stone and resin. The bowls locate securely on the pedestals, and the decorative groups of birds fix firmly in place on the edges of the bowls. The "Derwent" model has an attractive scalloped edge bowl, 42cms. in diameter which sits firmly on its pedestal with an intricately moulded woodland scene. It is 63cms. overall in height.
