Magformers Sweet House Set

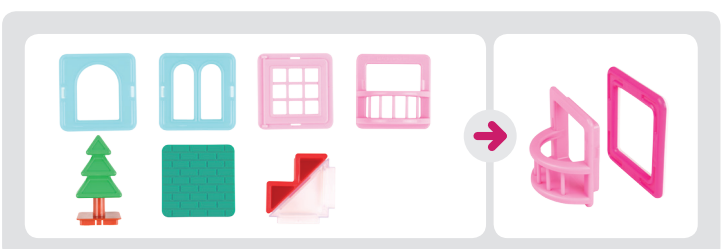

Magformers Sweet House Set comes with Magformers magnetic pieces and various accessories, including stairs, windows and trees, to make more detailed Magformers models. The enclosed booklet contains photos of each model from various angles. Children can create their own models while reading the directions as well as observing photos of models taken from different angles. Just like an architect who creates buildings by looking at architectural drawings, children can become architects and build their own Magformers house.
